

Proposal 35

Digest

This proposed amendment would repeal the requirement that the Council Reapportionment Commission have no more than half of its members from the same political party, since City Council offices are non-partisan and elections for these offices are held on a non-partisan basis.

Question

Should appointments to the Council Reapportionment Commission be made without regard to party affiliation?

Yes _____ No _____

Present Situation

The Council Reapportionment Commission, which determines the boundaries of each Council district, is required to have no more than a majority of its members from the same political party.

If Proposal Passes

Appointments to the Council Reapportionment Commission would be made without regard to party affiliation.
